Collection Statement Under Privacy Act 1988

In accordance with the Privacy Act 1988 (and subsequent amendments), we Insurance Brokers Australia (and our subsidiaries and related entities) draw your attention to the following:

- We may collect personal information about you by means of the enclosed document.
- We are collecting the information principally for the purpose of approaching the insurance market, placing insurance, assessing and advising you on your insurance needs, claims handling or risk management (depending on your requirements). Other purposes include providing you with information about other Insurance Brokers Australia products or services and administering payments to you. If you are proposing for or renewing insurance, the information is required pursuant to your duty of disclosure under the Insurance Contracts Act 1984, the Marine Insurance Act 1909 or at common law.
- The information we collect may be disclosed to third parties including but not limited to insurers, insurance intermediaries, service providers, finance providers, advisers, agents and Insurance Brokers Australia related Group companies.
- The information we collect may be disclosed to third parties including but not limited to insurers, insurance intermediaries, service providers, finance providers, advisers, agents and Insurance Brokers Australia related Group companies.
- Your personal information may be sent to our administrative processing centre insurers, reinsurers and other third party service providers (e.g. data storage providers).
- If you provide us with personal information about other individuals, you must ensure that those persons have been made aware of the abovematters. Where the information collected relates to health, criminal record or other sensitive information as defined in the Privacy Act 1988, you must obtain it with the individual's consent. We will use and disclose your personal information in accordance with our Privacy Policy.
